

Petkewich Residence
Oakland, California

This new 2,500 square foot residence, the winner of an award from the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID), is on a steep down-sloping lot in the Oakland Hills fire area. The garage is at the top behind a painted metal grille, with the living areas in the middle and bedrooms below. Spanning the street to the garage is a poured-in-place concrete bridge.